

Dear Friends,

Last year, a group of leaders from Temple Oheb Shalom and Har Sinai Congregation met on many occasions to explore the possibility of a combining of our two historic congregations. Har Sinai's Board voted to end those conversations last summer.

With new leadership, Har Sinai's Board recently voted to resume exploring a merger with Oheb Shalom. Our own Board will discuss the possibility of resuming merger conversations at its scheduled meeting on Tuesday night. As always, our Board's primary responsibility will be to ensure the continued health and future success of our beloved congregation. On Tuesday, our Board will ONLY consider the question of whether or not we should again explore the possibility of a merger. If we resume conversations with Har Sinai, your input will be vital to the process. No decision will be made without your participation.

I will continue to communicate with you as the process unfolds.

B'shalom
